WASHINGTON AND ALEXANDRIA R. R: --The following communication appeared in the Washington Star of yesterday evening:

"While returning from the country last Monday morning, my horse ran away, endangering my life, and that of a sister seven years of age, under circumstances which, I think, attach much blame to the persons in charge of the trains running on the Alexandria and Washington Railroad. My mother, little sister and myself were in an open buggy, when a short distance this side of Roach's spring, we were overtaken without the least warning by a train at nearly full speed, which, when first seen, was not over 500 yards behind us. My mother jumped off from one side of the buggy, and I, thinking she had the little one off, jumped from the other side, and took the horse's bead to quiet him. Just at that moment, and as my mother was about to lift the child off, the whistle was sounded, while alongside of the horse, which startled him. I, seeing that the child was in the buggy, bung on to the bridle for about 600 yards, when my back struck a post in the road, thereby breaking my hold and throwing me under the wheels, which passed over my body, though fortunately not injuring me seriously. The horse kept on and was finally stopped at the bridge, and, though the buggy was broken, the child was uninjured. All this time the car whistle kept screaming, and persons yelling at the horse from the train; these peopled never stopped the train or whistle. Persons in the neighborhood tell me that the employees of the road hugely enjoy the sport of frightening horses in this same manner. If a few officers were made to swing for such a barbarous practice, such scenes would not be of so frequent occurrence.

The officers of the railroad state that the writer of the above must have drawn upon his imagination for the statements it contains .-There are certain crossings on the line of the road at which the engineer is compelled to blow the whistle as a warning to those who may be approaching those points, but the whistle is sounded no where else. ]

C. & O. Canal.—In the annual report of the president and directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company to the stockholders July 1, 1868, the president states that there has been a moderate increase of the business of the company during the past year, and that the prospects for uninterrupted trade and transportation during the current year look encour-

The revenues for the year ending December 31, 1867, exceeded those of 1866 by the sum of $18,187.97, and the amount in the aggregate to $385,034 83. The current expenses for the year 1867 were $346,660 96, (inclusive of interests and balance of loans of 1867,) showing the excess of revenue over extraordinary and current expenses to have been $138,373 87 The report shows that the reduction of tolls on coal to one fourth of one per cent. per ton has given an impetus to that valuable trade, that will prove profitable to the company, and advantageous to the cities of Georgetown and Washington. It is stated the break in the canal has been repaired and that boats may be expected here from Cumberland on Wednesday or Thursday next.

RATIFICATION MEETING. - Yesterday evening, a large number of our citizens assembled in front of the Mansion House, to ratify the nominations of Seymour and Blair, and were addressed in animated and eloquent speeches by Judge Moore, Captain William H. Dulany and Colonel Charles E. Stuart. The speeches were all received with great applause. Much enthusiasm prevailed on the occasion—salutes were fired, rockets let off, and bearty shown greated the angeless, whenever the wind to the shorn lamb," will surely comfort them in this affliction. It may be, hearty cheers greeted the speakers whenever they alluded to the Conservative nominees.

BROKEN WINDOWS .- The firing of the small cannon at the intersection of King and Fairfax street, last night, during the progress of the ratification meeting, was the cause of the breaking of some of the glass in the windows of houses in that locality. Justice Lewis McKenzie who was at the scene of the breakage, stopped the firing by threatening to commit to jail the parties engaged in it. The parties who suffered by having their windows broken had their loss made good this morning.

THE MARKET, this morning, was well supplied with vegetables, without any material change in prices though the tendency is to a decline. New potatoes are selling at 40 cts. per peck. Cabbage, beets, onions and cucumbers are in abundance. Butter and eggs at last quoted rates. Tomatoes are beginning to come in freely—and sell at different rates according to 2 hooped Varnished Pails, 2 hooped Oaken quality. The Butchers had good supplies of Pails, 2 hooped Painted Pails, 1 lot Clothes' gne fresh meats. Blackberries from S to 10 cts. per quart.

TIME TABLE CHANGED. - For the accommodation of the public the train of cars on the Washington and Alexandria Railroad that for the last week or so has left Washington at 4 o'clock, will in tuture leave there at 20 minutes after 4 o'clock—the time of departure previous to the late change.

POLE RAISING. -It is proposed by the residents of the western end of the city to erect, at an early day, a Seymour and Blair flag-pole at the corner of King and Commerce streets .-Several speakers will be invited to deliver addresses on the occasion.

NEW WAEAT. - The first arrival of new wheat by the Orange, Alexandria and Manassas Railroad reached here yesterday evening. It was a Bealton.

POLICE REPORT-MAYOR'S OFFICE .-- Ann Jordan, colored, for an assault on a son of Geo. Taylor, was discharged, and the costs of the case assessed against the complainant.

MAGISTRATES' OFFICE. - A search warrant was issued against Alice Venere for a dress belonging to Jennie Javins. Jennie Javins and Minnie Seymour, for threatening and abusive language towards Alice Venere, were in default of the payment of the imposed fines, and of the required security, committed to jail.

OBITUARY.

In Alexandria, Va., June 28th, 1868, LAURA McCARTNEY, youngest daughter of Christian and Susan Schafer, in the 27th year of her age. The peculiarly distressing circumstances attending the death of this lovely girl, have called forth the sympathy of this entire community; yet the writer of this, who knew her well, cannot refrain from paying a just tribute to her memory and virtues. She was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, having been confirmed under Rev. J T.

Johnston, about twelve years ago. Naturally amiable in disposition, her religion rendered her very lovely and attractive, and those who knew her best, bear testimony that she was a good girl. She was a dutiful daughter, a kind, affectionate sister; and the home of her family is desolate. The burden of grief our dear ones, those we love most tenderly, are taken from earth to Heaven, that our affections may be set more firmly on Heavenly things.

"God doeth all things well." Died, to-day, at 12 o'clock, BENJAMIN F. WARING, in the 26th year of his age.-(Sunday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the residence of his brother-in-law, John T. Stone, No. 90, Queen st .- [Balt. papers please copy.
